Welcome

We wish you luck as you explore post-secondary options. All representatives are here to assist you and to answer your questions. You may use the following questions as a guideline for getting better acquainted with these options.

A	dmissions		How does your campus work with students who transfer in/transfer out.
	What are your admission requirements? What happens if I don't have all of the necessary requirements?		Do I need a computer?
	Which standardized test scores do you require (ACT, SAT,		Do you offer tutoring if I am struggling with a class?
	etc)? What type of school is this? (public, private, career focused, technical)		What kinds of services are available to help students deal with academic pressure, health issues, personal counseling and loneliness?
	I'm interested in studying? Do you have this? What type of degrees are offered in this area?		What services do you offer to students with disabilities and other health impairments? How do I apply for services?
	I am not sure of what I want to study, how does your school work with undecided students?	Н	o u s i n g
	Does this school require general studies? When do I declare a major and can I change it?		What kinds of residence halls are available and do I have to live in one?
	When can I visit? How do I arrange a tour?		Is student housing guaranteed?
	What are the application deadlines for admission?		How is housing arranged? Can I select my roommate?
	How long should I expect to wait for an answer once I submit my application?		Can I commute to school? When can I have a car on campus? Is it easy to find transportation?
6	How important is my advisor? What kind of mentor	St	tudent Life programs does this college have?		Where are you located? What is the surrounding community like?
IVI	ilitary		How many students are on your campus?
	What branch of the military do you represent?		What's it like on campus on the weekend?
	What financial support do you offer?	_
	How many years of service must I sign up for?		Are intramural, club, and varsity sports offered?
	What types of jobs are available in your branch of service?		How are the sports facilities?
	What educational opportunities and option does your service		What types of meal plans are available?
	provide?	Jι	ust the facts
F	nancial Aid		How many freshman return for their sophomore year?
	What is the TOTAL cost to attend this school? What does		How safe is the campus and its surrounding neighborhoods?
	that include? (tuition, housing, fees, books)		ome things to ask
	How does your school decide how financial aid is awarded? What type of aid is included (scholarships, grants, loans,	y c	ourself!
	work study)? How do I apply?		What kind of college setting do I want? (i.e., rural, urban)
	When is your financial aid deadline?		Can I handle my new independence with maturity and responsibility?
C	lassroom		•
	What is the average class size?		Am I a social person, will I become involved in campus activities (student organizations, sports, sorority, fraternity, etc.)? Am I an academic person and want to research
	How accessible are professors outside of class?		internship opportunities and academic societies? Am I both academic and social and do I have the skill to become
	Will professors or graduate students teach my courses?		involved on campus while maintaining good grades?
	What kind of grading system does this school have? How is college credit earned?		Can I adapt to change well? Will I need assistance in making the transition.

□ What am I interested in studying